About This Game

Inspired by games like Don't Starve, Starbound and The Legend of Zelda, Adventure Craft combines the best elements of these games together with procedural game design! Adventure Craft takes place in a MASSIVE, virtually endless, constantly evolving, PROCEDURALLY GENERATED world, created on the fly by a special algorithm that arranges the game's content and characters to create a living and breathing world for you to play in. The more you explore the world the LARGER it gets and no two worlds will be exactly the same.

GAME FEATURES

- EXPLORE a vast, virtually endless, procedurally generated world, featuring multiple biomes inhabited by their own wildlife and monsters
- EXPERIENCE a full Day/Night cycle that constantly changes the gameplay experience based on the time of the day
- DESCEND into a deep dark cave system full of extreme dangers, treasure and powerful monsters that fear the sun of the world above
- CRAFT a large variety of weapons and equipment with lots of materials and loot
- BUILD a home and customize it to fit your personality with decorations and furnishings
- CREATE custom party members in a cloning vat and customize their AI through the AI creator

- TRAIN a pet attack dog who grows and learns new abilities over time

Shock Cantator

Enhants an area, afflicting all who stand on it. Does damage and makes abilities less effective. (35% penalty)

At Level 3:
Also weakens all foes in target area.

At Level 6, gain Acid Cantator:
Covers a region with deadly acidic goo. Also slimes characters in target area.

(Increasing this skill also makes its abilities far more effective.)

By no means a bad game, but not worth fifteen dollars for the amount of content. If it seems like your kind of game, wait for a sale.. Its overall a good realistic aircraft. Bought this to hold me off until I can get the A2A Cessna, but since i'm saving up to build a more capable PC for all my FSX addons, I bought this since it was cheaper and is still a really good realistic aircraft to add to the hanger.. i sold my kids just to play this game, i am in debt.... I liked the game. If you haven't played motogp for a few years, this one is to get. I don't think I would pay 40 euros for the same engine based game. I would expect AAA optimized graphics, but Compact is really balanced at the price and features. If you like MotoGP, this one is to get.. this is the dark souls of league of legends games. Everytime I get a fire call there isn't a hydrant within miles of the fire, putting it out with an extinguisher is not fun at all.. It;< Been waiting so long for this damn game. It really is a love letter to fans of the PS2 Ace Combat games. >>

Edit: for ultrawide players like me there is a fan patch on wsgf.com to play on wide screens. I have always been a fan of the wolfenstein franchise, so when the new game launched this year I knew I HAD to get it. The throwback to the earlier graphics definitely resonates with me as a fan, and I appreciate their counter-culture alt-left message in a time as politically charged as this. The soundtrack - I don't care WHAT haters say about this choice of music, it completely fits the game so well, and it brings mood to every cutscene in this game (or should I say, this EXPERIENCE). I can't believe I got such a good game for such a good deal.

10V10 Best Game I've Played This Year

. I enjoyed this game, more than I thought I would. I got it on a whim (during Summer Sale), and I am not disappointed with my purchase. I love to play games like these, and the graphics were actually very nice (even by today's standards). Sure, as many people have said, it is quite simplistic, but I think that is what works for this game; it isn't overly complicated, but not so simple that the game isn't good. Liked the change of environments, and wide range of enemies; always kept you on your toes. It is a short game, and can get repetitive at times, but overall, I would recommend to anyone who likes sandbox tug-of-war types!

What the Ding-Dong-Diddly-Do is this you might ask.

Well, its aHorror game with an entire story to it, Breaking every 4th wall there is (there are more then 4!), Unique and innovating gameplay aspects, Jumpscare like never seen before, Ultrawide (21:9) Support, VR Support, lacks the Child support that you'll definitely need after peeing your pants though. I'm even guilty to ALT+F4-ing the game at a certain point that I litterally thought it was gonna jump out of my screen. Also thought my GPU was Artifacting but it was the game. "It" tricked me. 11/10 Would recommend. If there is a steam award for best horror game. This will get my vote. Better than Outlast 2. Its even better than Sonic Adventure DX (And that's some scary\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665

I allready bought 3 copies (for me and my friends) and tbh if the price was 4,99 or heck even 9,99. I'd still buy it. The first chapter will last you 1.5-2 hours at itself. And there are two more chapters to come! Defenitly worth the price.. Nice little TD. The pacing of the levels are quite good but about 75% through the game you will find yourself forced to grind old maps for resources. The difficulty drastically climbs at the end to the point where it is impossible to play without first getting stronger. Other than that I found this game fun to play.. not even at 90% off. Poor gameplay, graphics, controls, camera, and game.. Just absolutly awful, dont waste the 4 bucks on this garbage. First off developers your band sucks. The music doesnt fit the game and is dreadful. Second why would you use such a crappy♥♥♥♥♥font in the game. Not fun to play, Clunky controls.....blah blah blah, this game blows.. Please don't tell my parents.. This feels exactly like Fallout plus Metro 2033 plus The Walking Dead. Although the writing is very good, the story is just clique, and some of the choices seemed---forced. And you can't choose to play as a female by the way. This game could be so much more if given more care and time, but I'm sorry I can't recoment it.. For such a low price this expansion is a must-have. Greatly improves the competitiveness of the game as you can try to hinder your opponents or double your own points with the new tiles in this pack. Very fun.
